

Korean Missionary Sisters Gather, Incheon, South Korea

Sister Marie Aquina, provincial superior of the Regina Pacis Province, and her council called together the Korean missionary sisters working throughout Asia to work on writing a Mission Policy Directory for their province based on the Mission Policy Manual published by the Congregation. The meeting was held from May 15 to 17 in Seoul, Korea. The theme of the meeting was “Toward the Future...Wake Up the World.” There were 13 sisters in attendance, this included 7 missionaries and the province leadership team. During the meeting the challenges of missionary activities were discussed as well as the topics of vocations, formation and ministries. All participants felt it was a very productive meeting.
