

World Meeting for Young Consecrated Men and Women

Year of Consecrated Life

Wake Up the World – Gospel, Prophecy, Hope

From September 15 to 19, 2015 the Vatican has called together young men and women religious as part of the Year of Consecrated Life. The program consists of input, discussion, celebrating, and witnessing.

The 18 SND participants in the Vatican event were called to the Motherhouse on September 6 to meet each other and make a mini-pilgrimage in Rome before joining the larger group.

Sister Mary Kristin met with them giving them an orientation to this time in Rome. There were daily outings to the holy places in the Eternal City planned and time for integration. The relationships and networking available to the sisters will be remembered for years to come.
